Dear Joe:

I sincerely appreciate your good letter of February 27th, and the flattering things you have to say about me.

I am confident that my brother in a few weeks will be back at work in his old job, and I would not therefore desire anyone to start any movement such as you suggest.

It was good to hear from you after so many years, and I hope you will let me hear from you when you are next in Washington.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles
